See curriculum overview diagram for concepts studied in each Key Stage	Christians believe Jesus brings good news for all people.	Christians believe Jesus challenges everyone about how to live — he sets the example for loving God and your neighbour, putting others first.	Christians believe the good news is not just about setting an example for good behaviour and challenging bad behaviour: it is that Jesus offers a way to heal the damage done by human sin.
	For Christians, this good news includes being loved by God, and being forgiven for bad things.	Christians believe Jesus challenges people who pretend to be good (hypocrisy) and shows love and forgiveness to unlikely people.	Christians see that Jesus' teachings and example cut across expectations — the Sermon on the Mount is an example of this, where Jesus' values favour serving the weak and vulnerable, not making people comfortable.
	Christians believe Jesus is a friend to the poor and friendless.	Christians believe Jesus' life shows what it means to love God (his Father) and love your neighbour.	Christians believe that Jesus' good news not only transforms lives now, but also points toward a restored, transformed life in the future. (See Salvation and Kingdom of God).
	Christians believe Jesus' teachings make people think hard about how to live and show them the right way.	Christians try to be like Jesus — they want to know him better and better.	Christians believe that they should bring this good news to life in the world in different ways, within their church family, in their personal lives, with family, with their neighbours, in the local, national and global community.
		Christians try to put his teaching and example into practice in lots of ways, from church worship to social justice.
